Another test of manhood is faith. No man can live as he should without a strong faith in God, who gives us every good thing. We should also have faith in other men; many a poor fellow has gone down because no one has manifested faith in him and on the other hand because some. and on the other hand because some-one has believed in him many a man has risen from the "slough of de-spair" and has become a noble char-Endurance is also a test of man-

SUPERIOR COURT. Placed Under $500 Bonds.

One of the greatest needs of the world in which we live is real upright men; not that we cannot find a goodly number of such but the world needs an increasing number of men who are dominated by the spirit of service to their fellows, said General Secretary Edwin Hill of the Y. M. C. A. in his talk at the shop meeting held Wednesday noon in the Richmond Radiator company.

Continuing Secretary Hill said:

There are certain tests by which we can measure our manhood and we do well at times to apply these tests. The first great test of manhood is love and if our manhood measures up to this test we are truly manly. We speak of love to God and I pity the man, whose heart does not go out in gratitude to his maker, but unless we have a warm love for our fellowmen our professed love for God may justly be questioned for we read in holy work. The first great test of manhood is loved that the second of the city court at the session of the city court at the found that Casey possessed a key that fitted the rear door of the saloon. CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR RETAIL MERCHANTS Organization Committee Reported

Progress at Meeting Wednesday. The Retail Merchants' association held a meeting in the obard of trade rooms, Wednesday morning and the organization committee reported that suitable constitution and by-laws are being prepared.

It was decided at this meeting to have some one visit the retail mer-chants of the city with the idea of having all become members of the association, and after it has been as-certained who are interested enough in the welfare of the retail merchants to join in the movement there will be called a meeting of all the siners when the constitution will be approved and officers chosen.

The association is being formed wholly wor the interest of the retail merchants and not to conflict in any way with the duties of any other trade organization now in existence. The sole purpose of the organization is to plan and carry out movements designed to improve the retail condition of Norwich merchants. There are to be no membership dues of any kind, and no obligations assumed by those joining that will bind them to any other purpose than that mentioned. It is hoped by those having the perfec-tion of the organization in hand that every retail merchant interested in the progress and development of the city will see the advantage of joining of comfort and contentment.

On the other hand—well, the less said the better. Of course, there are exceptions that prove the rule, said the speaker, who by the way is a man that conceived the idea of producing a beneficial preparation for women's hair—one combining ingredients that not only make it radiantly beautiful and fascinating, but refreshes and invigorates the hair roots so as to promote an abundant growth of healthy hair and at the same time banishes every trace of dandruif.

So uniformly successful is this delightful preparation now known as Parislan Sags, that there is probably not one druggist in the United States that does not guarantee it to give the fullest measure of satisfactions. fullest measure of satisfaction or money back. Lee & Osgood have scores of women they supply regularly with Parisiah Sage, and the cost is trifling.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful. Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tes and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time re-

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abund-
